

April 23, 2009 12:37PM Weather: ☀️ 18°C, Fair (at our studios)

search

LOGIN

Back to Home
ABOUT US PROGRAMMES DONATE PODCAST CONTACT

talkBACK.

This is the place to air your comments and discuss our shows.

ALL TOPICS > DON STEWART

goto latest post

Don Stewart

A few years ago I rang your station about this man(Donn Stewart) looking for money to sell green handkerchiefs with blessings on them. You agreed with me that it was wrong to make money this way and yet he is still being shown on your station. I am very dissapointed as I think your station is the best and most honest station I watch. This type of prosperity message is wrong. We are to go out and heal the sick, not get them to pay for it. It is a free gift from God and this kind of thing only promotes greed and confusion. Please think about this and remove this man from your station. It is not good.

Robbie

 By: Robbie
 Date: 23/01/09

I totally agree I dont want to see Don Stewart, Mike Murdoch Todd Coontz, Peter Popoff and their like on any tv channel. Are they interested in preaching the word of God or asking for money?

 By: dorinda
 Date: 13/02/09

I watch Revelation and Genesis TV and find your broadcasts inspiring and full of integrity. I agree with others though that Men who peddle the gospel for money should not be broadcast on your channels. The green handkerchief man is a good example of this.

 By: Oyinlade
 Date: 04/03/09

I agree that there is too much talk of money and gimmickry on some programmes across the God Channels. Of course, it is expensive to buy air time on international TV and to run a back up organisation but I wonder if preachers realise that most viewers have their own churches to support (which is their reasonable service) and may have their own favourite missions so contributing to TV programmes is often a 3rd choice. Let's see them have more emphasis on faith. There are also so many worthy, secular charities asking for money that, unfortunately, one just has to close out any that are further down the list of priorities.

 By: john3
 Date: 12/03/09

I would like to concur with these other posts and add that it is upsetting to see so many awful things on Genesis and Revelation tv, like the Benny Hinn, Kenneth Copeland and Donn Stewart ministries, amongst such edifying and beautiful things. Your statement of faith says "Man's primary purpose is to glorify God...". These people tell lies and do not "glorify God". Please stop broadcasting them.

 By: Dayvid
 Date: 12/03/09

I agree with David about the word faith ministries, like the copelands, benny hinn, donn stewart, morris cerello, etc. Christians following the Lord closely know about these false teachers; they have been doing the rounds for years on various Christian channels; what a shame to have them on such a good tv channel as Revelation and Genesis tv. it detracts from good programming that Howard and Lesley and the team work so hard to put on. I look forward to the day that these teachers are off the RTV and GTV channels.

I would also like to say a Thank you Danny for posting the complaints as well as the compliments...

Maureen

 By: maureen
 Date: 13/03/09

I found Leslie's comments a couple of days ago, that "the screens would be blank if we removed every program people complained about", really quite pathetic, because that is not the real issue. On one aspect both Howard and Leslie, rightly, have made it very clear for years that they are not prepared to "financially exploit viewers". Despite this, they continue to broadcast those who do "financially exploit viewers"! I will resist describing that position as hypocrisy, but rather say that it is totally inconsistent with what they profess to believe.

If, the stations could not survive without these money grabbers, then perhaps it would be better that Genesis - Revelation went "off air". After all, that is what Howard himself has said regarding the fact that if he had to indulge in questionable ways of raising money he would rather choose going "off air".

I am a regular monthly supporter of Genesis - Revelation, and will continue to be so, but I am very unhappy that my modest but regular contribution is being polluted by these blatant exploiters of the Church. I appeal to Howard and Leslie that they are frank with us regarding the financial implications of removing these guys, at least we would then be in a position to make a decision about how we might help to close the gap.

The Biblical position is very clear - abusers of the flock, financially or otherwise, should be removed from "the church without walls".

By: Alastair

Date: 13/03/09

We agree with the above comments made by everyone. At the moment I and a few other viewers are withholding our monthly contributions made to Revelation TV because we don't think it is right to sow the Lords money into promoting these false teachers. We know that these teachers pay for their own airtime; however, we think that its best to hold back on committing to support Revelation or Genesis TV as we don't want to preach a false message to new converts. Besides that, Howard said that he would never have these preachers on Genesis TV; not only has he got them on Genesis but now he is also airing Andrew Wommack, yet another word faith teacher; when and where is all this going to end? Will Revelation and Genesis TV just end up the same as all the other so called God channels, with no discernment?

We hope not....we shall wait and pray for all at Revelation TV and Genesis...

By: Steve and friends

Date: 13/03/09

I agree with most of these opinions, but we don't have to watch what we don't like. Also we should be loving one another as ourselves, not just keep on criticising all the time as I believe this is grieving the spirit of GOD. The best stations going by far. Keep up the good work. GOD bless you all Shalom.

By: phili bailey

Date: 13/03/09

I agree - there are programmes I do not watch on Revelation and Genesis, because I disagree with their viewpoints - but there are people I disagree with in the body of Christ anyway. The really obvious charlatans need to go, their methods have been exposed as fraudulent any number of times, like Peter Popoff.

But Copeland, Hinn et al do teach some good things amongst things I do not subscribe to. I'm a Calvinist in doctrine, and there are some who would consider that to be a great error, but I do think that, in this sort of endeavour, a little charity will cover much. Who can doubt the Conder's genuine softness of heart? If they feel it right to take action, I trust that they will do it.

By: Libbie

Date: 13/03/09

Is it Right To Expose False Teachers?

False teachers are free to spread their poisonous doctrines today because there is a conspiracy of silence among many Bible believers. Wolves in sheep's clothing are thus enabled to ravage the flock, thereby destroying many.

John the Baptist called the Pharisees and Sadducee (the religious leaders of his day) "a generation of Vipers" (snakes) (Matt. 3:7). Today, he would be accused of being unloving, unkind, and unchristian.

Jesus said to the religious Pharisees, "O generation of vipers, how can ye, being evil, speak good things? for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh" (Matt. 12:34). To many evangelicals and some fundamentalists, this would be unacceptable language today, but it is biblical language and it came from the mouth of the Son of God.

Standing face to face with these false teachers, Jesus Christ the Son of God, called them "hypocrites", "blind guides", "blind", "whited sepulchres", "serpents" and "ye generation of vipers" (Matt. 23:23-34). Yet, we are told today that we are to fellowship with men whose doctrines are just as unscriptural as those of the Pharisees. Some who say they are Bible believing Christians insist on working with Roman Catholics and other assorted heretics. Yet, according to many, we are not supposed to rebuke them for their compromise.

Near the beginning of His ministry, "Jesus went up to Jerusalem, And found in the temple those that sold oxen and sheep and doves, and the changers of money sitting: And when he had made a scourge of small cords, he drove them all out of the temple, and the sheep, and the oxen; and poured out the changers' money, and overthrew the tables; and said unto them that sold doves, Take these things hence, make not my Father's house a house of merchandise" (John 2:13-16).

Our Saviour is presented today as one who was meek, lowly, kind, and loving, even to false teachers, but this is entirely false. When dealing with false teachers and prophets, His words were sharp and His actions plain.

Near the end of His public ministry, Christ found it necessary to cleanse the temple once again. The exposure of false doctrines and practices is a never ending job. At that time He said, "Is it not written, My house shall be called of all nations the house of prayer? but ye have made it a den of thieves" (Mark 11: 17). Is it any different today? The thieves come into the house of God, and rob God's people of the Bible and peddle their perverted Bibles instead. At the same time this den of thieves rob the people off the doctrine of separation and the doctrine of sanctification. Then you can hardly tell God's people from the people of the world. In all honesty, should not these thieves (false teachers) be exposed?

In our day these false teachers have come into the churches with their books, music, literature, movies, psychology, and seminars, and have turned the Father's house into a den of thieves. It is time that men of God stand up and expose their errors for all to see.

By: Keith

Date: 13/03/09

What is really sad is that so many people STILL give to the money preachers . We need to be as harmless as doves yes , but also as wise as serpents. Money preachers are an utter embarrassment, they are also very poor Bible teachers. I look at them as modern day Tetzels .

By: Graham

Date: 13/03/09

Although I agree that false teachers and profits should be exposed. We should remember Jesus said we will know them by their fruit. Also it is easy for us as viewers to condemn these programmes being shown on Rev/genesis tv. We are not to judge; that is for Father God.

Just a verse for all: Luke chapter 9 verse 49-50 -"And John answered and said, Master, we saw one casting devils in thy name and we forbade him because he followed not with us. And Jesus said unto him, Forbid him not, for he that is not against us is for us."

Remember it is all about relationship with Jesus not about which church you belong to.

By: michael

Date: 14/03/09

Deuteronomy 18:20-22: But the prophet who presumes to speak a word in My name, which I have not commanded him to speak, or who speaks in the name of other gods, that prophet shall die. 21: And if you say in your heart, 'How shall we know the word which the LORD has not spoken?' — 22: when a prophet speaks in the name of the LORD, if the thing does not happen or come to pass, that is the thing which the LORD has not spoken; the prophet has spoken it presumptuously; you shall not be afraid of him.

Matthew 24:24: For false "christs" and false prophets will rise and show great signs and wonders to deceive, if possible, even the elect.

Benny Hinn has made prophecies that by the mid nineties (94-95) Fidel Castro would die and the homosexual community of America would be burned up with fire.

Kenneth Copeland says all Christians are 'little gods' that God is the 'biggest failure in the bible' 'Jesus did not claim to be God'

By: david

Date: 14/03/09

Hi Michael

I understand the point you are making, however to say we are not to judge isn't quite correct..

Now let me address the question of judging. There are two passages in God's word that I want to show you. Many people use the first one and then claim we are not to judge at all, but they miss the point. Here is the first one:

(Matthew 7:1-2 NIV) [1]"Do not judge, or you too will be judged. [2] For in the same way you judge others, you will be judged, and with the measure you use, it will be measured to you."

The problem is that people need to understand what Jesus is saying and they also need to read the next couple of verses also. Let me quote those next few verses here:

(Matthew 7:1-5 NIV) [1]"Do not judge, or you too will be judged. [2] For in the same way you judge others, you will be judged, and with the measure you use, it will be measured to you. [3] Why do you look at the speck of sawdust in your brother's eye and pay no attention to the plank in your own eye? [4] How can you say to your brother, 'Let me take the speck out of your eye' when all the time there is a plank in your own eye? [5] You hypocrite, first take the plank out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to remove the speck from your brother's eye."

Jesus is talking about judging hypocritically. We are not to judge like that or we will be judged by that same measure, however, we will all be judged by God's word so if we use that measure we are doing it correctly. Now let me show you the second passage which goes along with this:

(1 Corinthians 5:12-13 NIV) [12]"What business is it of mine to judge those outside the church? Are you not to judge those inside? [13] God will judge those outside. Expel the wicked man from among you."

Keith

By: Keith

Date: 14/03/09

Hi Keith

Thank you for pointing out these passages for me. But the point I was trying to address is that, in the end, God knows your heart and it is of no importance which church; it is about relationship with Father God through Jesus. I believe that the Holy Spirit will show you where you need to be to help speak the truth and to understand that we all make mistakes in interpretation of the word. My bible, which is the old King James, says this:

(1 Corinthians 5:12-13)

For what have I to do to judge them also that are without? do not ye judge them that are within? But them that are without, God judgeth. Therefore put away from among yourselves that wicked person.

It is still a matter of how you see things.

By: michael

Date: 14/03/09

Hi Michael

these word faith teachers aren't making mistakes, they are preaching a different gospel; my bible is old King James too but I use other versions for comparison.

you are right about one thing, though, Michael, we can or should be able to discern these false preachers by the Holy Spirit but for me just listening to them for 30 minutes tells me everything I need to know with the discernment..

Keith

By: Keith
Date: 14/03/09

Having read the other comments on here i would like to add mine if i may..

I became a born again christian earlier this year and one of the main problems i had before was seeing these con-men on various tv stations. I have been watching gen/rev for the past couple of months and i'm saddened that you are now giving these people air-time.

If i try to bear witness to God and tell friends & family how letting him into my life was the best thing i have done and i tell them to watch your stations and they tune in and see someone shouting at the camera to send money for this and money for that how do think they are going to respond? The answer is they will be put off for life and i couldn't really blame then.

I understand that your in a tricky situation because you need the money to stay on air but if you said you would take the station off air if you had to rely on this then i think you should until you can find another way of supporting your venture.

I watched another channel earlier today and saw people waving crutches in the air and saying 'i can walk freely again, it's a miracle!' and it really hurts me to see people being fooled like this by people using the word of God to con people. This is not America and i urge you to think again in the name of God.

I have really enjoyed several other programmes on your channels and have got a lot out of them but showing these charlatans undermines them and doesn't show you in a very good light.

I was going to start a monthly donation in April but i feel i can't whilst you continue to show these people.

I'm sorry that these comments may sound a tad harsh but they are from the heart. God bless, Rob

By: Rob Lovell
Date: 14/03/09

Hi Keith

I am glad that we agree about these faith preachers. Personally I don't watch them because they are preaching a different message than that of our Lord Jesus. But some people will come through these false teaching to the truth. It has been nice to have this discussion on line with you and I am always open to look at thing from a different angle even if we really agree. Wisdom is the most important thing to me; all else, to me, is not from God but man made. May God bless you.

By: michael
Date: 14/03/09

Hi Michael,

Thanks for the interaction and discussion, God Bless broth.

love in Jesus

Keith (& Kathy)

By: Keith
Date: 15/03/09

We sent this piece into the R Mornings programme and it was read out by Lesley; for all those who missed the programme that day, here it is... love Keith & Kathy.

Disclaimer: Please understand that this article is written to be a humorous way of exposing false teachings. Although it is written in a tongue-in-cheek style, the false teachings in it are very real. They are not connected to any one denomination, but are now permeating even mainstream churches.

Official Handbook of How to Fleece the sheep for Fun and Profit:

Before embarking upon this enterprise of fleecing the flock for fun and profit, one must establish oneself as a special "Anointed" spokesperson for God. This can be accomplished in several ways.

RULE 1: Learn the official "Anointed" Christian buzzwords. You can begin with repeating the word "anointed" in your conversations, making sure that people recognize that you have this special anointing.

Setting up people in the audience to be "healed" is a good way of gaining the flock's confidence. However, make certain the affliction they are healed of is something that is not visible; also make sure that it cannot be medically verified. Headaches and other aches and pains are good to capitalize on. Make certain that you choose the people beforehand so they will not give away what is happening.

Persuading people that you are giving them a secret, hidden knowledge that others do not have will draw them in like flies to honey. This will encourage them to have an awe of your knowledge. Once people recognize you have this anointing, then you can begin to claim apostleship or establish yourself as a prophet of God. This works well as people would rather hear from a prophet than to hear from God through study of His word.

Remember to keep them from discovering that you "anointed" yourself. This is vital. If they see that you started out as the only one who said you were anointed, you will never get a flock going and will miss out on all the fun and profit there is when you start fleecing them.

Rule 2: Establish yourself as a prophet from God by making a few predictions. It does not matter if they don't come to pass because you can always claim it was their lack of faith as to why it did not come to pass.

The secret to being successful is always to shift the blame back onto them when in a tight spot. Whatever you do, never ever accept responsibility for the lack of failed prophecies as this will taint your image and hinder the pursuit of fleecing the flock for fun and profit.

You must also keep your followers from any passages in the Bible that say that a prophet must have 100% accuracy such as Deuteronomy 18. It will be necessary to steer them clear from such passages and remind them that all people are fallible. If you keep the focus on the fallible people, your followers will not notice that prophecies are supposed to come from God who is infallible.

Rule 3: If anyone challenges you as a prophet of God, remind them of the verse that says "touch not Gods anointed" and of the consequences of blasphemy of the Holy Spirit. Never mind that neither of these passages have anything to do with you or the situation.

It will sound very spiritual if you say it to them with a very stern look on your face and a loud voice.

It is essential that you use fear as often as possible to make sure the flock maintains its fear of you. Fear is a great tool to use that will enable you to continue to fleece them.

Rule 4: Discourage the flock from reading the Bible for themselves. Remind them often of how the Holy Spirit spoke to you and this reduces the need for study of the Bible because you have knowledge that supersedes the Bible.

Don't forget to inject a verse here and there so they will be convinced that this is from God. Choose obscure verses so they don't realize that they have nothing to do with what you are saying.

Always use the King James Version because most people nowadays don't understand it and you can use it to make verses say whatever you want them to. If challenged, invoke "divine revelation knowledge".

If any of the flock attempts to read the bible on their own, make sure you direct them to your interpretation of the scriptures by showing them what it "really" means. You can make a good profit on writing your own study Bible with your own notes in the margins. The leather versions can sell for more than £50 each and can give you a good source of income for many years.

The most annoying people are those who keep insisting on sound doctrine and one must guard against this attack at all cost. Your income and reputation are at stake on this one. However, this can be easily overcome through the buzzwords of "Can't we all just get along? We all love the same Jesus". Convince the flock that doctrine is divisive and that to love the Lord is all that matters. This works well because they then are the ones labelled as divisive and it questions their spirituality. When this is accomplished, it makes it easy to dismiss what they are saying.

Rule 5: Emotionalism is essential for a flock-fleecing ministry. Mimic the most successful fleecers and practice this often until you have it down pat. Aggressively prance back and forth across the stage while waving your arms wildly and be sure to talk fast and loud. For added emphasis, whisper at times to make them strain to hear you and then scream to make them jump out of their seats.

Tears and a lot of mopping of sweat from the forehead and mouth while preaching happens a lot while under the "anointing" and this assures the flock that they are receiving an "anointed" message. Dance a lot and say "Whooooeee, I feel the anointing coming upon me,GLORY." Be certain to make odd noises at times and call them speaking in tongues from the Spirit. This is highly impressive and will ensure the flock's awe of you.

Rule 6: Gimmicks are essential. For a ministry to thrive, money must regularly be fleeced from the flock. Don't take all of the money at once because it would drain the well dry, and you must be careful to spread it out over a very long time in order to raise your own income. Keep holding out a little hope to them that your teachings work. This can be accomplished by showing how the Lord has blessed you when you drive up in your limo. Assure them that they too can become anointed servant of God and be blessed in the same way. Some of the following gimmicks work well; they have been tried and tested. However, when the gimmicks begin to wane, one must use a little imagination to keep it fresh and exciting.

Anointed prayer cloths and trinkets. This one has been a big hit and a great success. This fleece does not work well with the older sheep but there are many new sheep who still find this to be exciting. You can have a variety of anointed cloths and trinkets that keep them going for quite awhile. Cloths and trinkets can be for healing, wealth, and power. The possibilities are almost limitless with a fertile imagination. The profit margin can be very large because the cloths and trinkets are cheap to buy and you can sell them for a good deal more than they are worth because of your special "anointing."

Praying over letters. This is another great way to bring in the income since your monetary investment is virtually nothing. Have the flock send in prayer requests in letter form and you can set the price for praying over them. How much you charge depends upon how well you have convinced the sheep of your anointing. A good anointed prophet can receive a "donation" of 20 bucks or more per prayer if handled correctly. Remind them that they are furthering God's kingdom while being blessed at the same time. Make sure you have a way of disposing of the letters so they don't clutter up your personal office space.

If one chooses the deliverance ministry as their means of income and recognition, you can offer anointed trinkets to ward off the spirits and set the price according to the severity of the demon. I would not recommend the use of the term "dollars against demons" because this would not sound too spiritual. However, this ministry guarantees an income and recognition because the demons don't stay bound very long and soon return. You will be called upon over and over to keep casting out the same demons from the same people. Fear works great in this gimmick because they soon become dependent upon you to keep the demons at bay. If they become divisive and question you, then is the time to dismiss them as dogs who keep returning to their own vomit. Remember, you do have an image that needs to be protected and never accept such non-sense questions as "why doesn't it work?" The key for a successful ministry is to shift the blame back onto the sheep. Arrogance will be your best friend to keep yourself aloof from the flock.

The electronic age is wonderful and one must not neglect this means of income and recognition. You can convince the flock that God is ever present everywhere and this includes the internet. Have the demon-possessed or the sick place their hands or forehead on the screen and convince them that God is touching them through you through the monitor. Have your website designer post a picture of you that reaches out your hand to them. This will convince them that you are really reaching out to pray for them. State that the prayers will only come to pass if they send you money. Again, your reputation will determine how much you set the price at for these prayers. The power of suggestion works well; hypnotists have used this principle for many years. All that is needed is for the prospective customer to be convinced in their mind that the "anointing" is flowing through to them upon contact with the monitor screen. You can then request additional "donations" for further anointed touches.

Rule 7: Parrot the buzz words that only the "anointed" use, such words as "Plead the blood of Jesus".

It doesn't matter that there is no precedence in the Bible for this phrase. It sounds spiritual so use this phrase often. Repeated often enough, this makes it sound like there is some magical ingredient in the blood of Jesus and puts it on the same level as holy water, incense, burning of candles

By: Keith
Date: 15/03/09

Hi again Keith

Thanks for posting the official handbook. I missed it when Leslie read it out on Rev tv. Just one point: the old King James is a good bible. To understand it, we as believers need to fast and pray and meditate on the verses we do not understand. Or, like yourself, get another version and compare the message. If you have seen Barry Smith on rev you would have noticed that some other versions have missed out words or used different words that can be misleading. I have used the old King James bible for nearly 45 years and find it to be very good. Still don't understand all of it but I read it daily and find it is still blessing me. Also, it is good to have interaction with fellow believers - as many as possible - so we can compare notes. I am not knocking other versions; my advice is read the Bible, the one that benefits you the most. That is why I love Rev/Genesis tv; they read from many different Bibles. For example, I love Bible studies on Monday nights and follow them quite happily with my old King James bible.

By: michael
Date: 15/03/09

Hi Michael

I was brought up on the King James, it's a shame most of the churches kicked it out along with the hymns; bring back the good old days....ha ha it's good to compare the versions though... I have esword with quite a few bible versions on, and all free to download, great for searching the scriptures and comparing them and all at the touch of a few keys on the laptop.

Stay Blessed,

in Jesus,

Keith

By: keith
Date: 16/03/09

Isaiah 21:6 - For thus hath the Lord said unto me, Go, set a watchman, let him declare what he seeth

By: Keith
Date: 17/03/09

Jesus said, "BEWARE of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly are ravenous wolves. You will know them by their fruit." The Bible says they "will secretly bring in destructive heresies... By covetousness they will exploit you with deceptive words... They have a heart trained in covetous practices." "Godliness with contentment is great gain... But those who desire to be rich fall into temptation and a snare... For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil." "You shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free." "Christ, in whom are hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge. Now this I say lest anyone should deceive you with persuasive words... Beware lest anyone cheat you through philosophy and empty deceit." Don't let any of these False Teachers deceive you! A True Christian is one who has Forsaken their life of Sin and Rebellion, has Trusted in Christ and lives for Jesus ALONE! Test EVERYTHING against Scripture! Read your Bible and Obey IT, NOT man!

Scripture References: Matt 7:15-16, 2 Pet 2, 1 Tim 6:3-12, Col 2:2-8, John 8:31-32, Acts 17:10-12

By: Keith
Date: 18/03/09

I have been reading the posts about Don Stewart. I agree with a lot of the comments. People like Don Stewart are grieving the Holy spirit in a lot of ways and spirit filled believers will discern this. The position for Genesis /RTV is not to compromise the work of the Holy spirit by remaining faithful and careful to air Holy spirit filled programmes. I do understand that current financial times means any monies you get will go along way. However we must be assured that, if we maintain our integrity in the work that the Holy Spirit does through us, then God is faithful enough to provide for us in ways that will blow our minds. God will provide for RTV/Genesis and in the name of Jesus you will be on air for as long as the Lord Jesus Himself desires you to be on air. No financial limitations can stop this. Take heart; God's budget is bigger than that of Don Stewart and every other preacher like him. I pray in the mighty name of JESUS CHRIST our Messiah, Redeemer, Provider and Friend that, through the guidance of the Holy spirit, Genesis/RTV will not air programmes that compromise the truth of the gospel of Jesus Christ and that you will be blessed and favoured financially for your integrity. Amen

By: Elaine
Date: 18/03/09

We better put Keith (K&K) on our posts because we see their is another Keith on here lol oops hello to the other Keith.

love in Jesus

Keith (K&K Keith & Kathy)

The above posts signed Keith on here are by Keith (K&K)

By: Keith K&K
Date: 19/03/09

Hi K&K, I absolutely love the handbook. I host a christian Magazine website called www.christianmaterials.co.uk and would like to paste the handbook on the site.

Please do I have your permission to do so?

Thanks a lot and God bless.

By: Oyinlade
Date: 20/03/09

Hi Oyinlade

the handbook (fleecing the sheep for fun and profit) copyright belongs to <http://www.oaim.org/fleecing.html> contact them if you like and see if they will let you put it onto your site...

hope that helps

Love in Jesus

Keith & Kathy

By: Keith K&K
Date: 20/03/09

I don't want to say my name but I'm an old lady of 70+ years of age, I've been a born again Christian for a long time.

Keith & Kathy I love your videos and emails and poems that you send in thank you so much, you brighten my day. when are you going down to revelation and go on the TV? it would be lovely to see you on.

I love and support genesis TV and know Howard and Lesley and everyone has a heart for God.

But what I can't understand is why are genesis putting on these American teachers, I'm very concerned, surely if you dear Howard & Lesley just trusted fully in the Lord and put these people off your stations then the Lord would truly bless you. Thank you for the good programmes that you do put on, but please pray and seek the Lord for wisdom..

I Love you all.

PS. a friend has put this on the computer for me as I don't have one.

By: Revelation Genensis TV Viewer
Date: 21/03/09

I can only concur with the general sentiments here - it saddens me enormously to see this man on Genesis/Revelation TV. I worry about the messages it sends to genuine lost and seeking viewers and channel hoppers? To go from a superb programme like World in Focus, R Mornings or Bible Study to his begging for donations for his "Green Prosperity Handkerchief" like it is some sort of lucky charm - and saddest of all some MUST get sucked into wasting their money on this man and his "ministry". The fact that it has the word "Prosperity" attached should say enough really. I haven't got to the point where I feel so strongly that I want to withhold financial support from Revelation (and we've been with Revelation in a financial and prayer sense since the very start), as I think the good programming far, far outweighs the very few bad, but of which Mr Stewart's is definitely the worst. I just hope Howard, Lesley and the team can take a long hard look at the detrimental effect that broadcasting his shows has and pull them for the sake of everybody's Spiritual health, the sooner the better...

By: Martyn
Date: 22/03/09

hear hear!

i cant help seeing other christian channels that have been broadcasting dodgy programs by corrupt teachers are now facing various shortages and difficulties i know that howard and lesley are sincere, honest people - i am concerned that their trusting nature is being exploited by those with far fewer scruples than they possess to the detriment of many vulnerable sheep.

i see that word faith is now infiltrating even genesis/revelation which used not to be on there - will i need to be chased off elsewhere before too long?

ty for your comments guys - glad to know that i am not alone in my concerns

By: Aslan
Date: 06/04/09

Add to this Discussion

You can add your views on this topic by filling out the form below. Once your comment has been approved, you will see it appear above.

Although a reply may not always be possible, Genesis - Revelation will always read anything that is posted to talkBACK.

Topics and posts containing vulgar or unrelated content will not be accepted.

Display Name

Email Address

Comment:

SUBMIT

All bold fields are required. Your email address will not be displayed.

Copyright © 2008, Revelation TV. Weather service provided by weather.com. World news provided by news.sky.com/skynews. Bible verse provided by biblegateway.com.
Site map. Terms & Conditions. Privacy Policy. Contact Us.